

Photos on the Clark County Web site

- If the photo is of a child and the face is recognizable, a release (consent form) is always required. (A copy of the consent form is available below.)
- If it is an adult, the face is recognizable, and the photo was taken at a nonpublic event, such as someone walking down the street or fishing at a stream, a release is needed.
- If it is an adult, the face is recognizable, and the photo was taken at a public event, including a meeting, no release is needed.
- If the face is not recognizable, no release is needed.
- Copies of the release form and the photo must be sent to the Public Information and Outreach Office, 1300 Franklin Street, Vancouver.
- Photos must be taken within the geographic boundaries of Clark County, Washington.

CONSENT FORM

I hereby grant Clark County permission to use my photo for use on its Web site or for educational or public information purposes in county publications.

Full name (please print)

Address

City

State

Zip

Home phone

Work phone

Event or activity

Date

Location

Signature

Date

If subject of photograph is a minor (under age 18):

Signature of parent or guardian

Date

Minor's age

Relation to minor

